

abandoned

look what she found in the bin shed just had to rescue it saw it tucked away behind the food recycling bin the poor thing only had three legs abandoned so it was its coat patchy and worn but she could imagine it glossy with a bit of tender loving care it could have purpose again a trendy stool upcycling's where it's at but inside her heart

she wanted a cat!
